ONE SPLENDID BARGAIN.

The last five weeks have been auspictors for us. We have traded in several elegant bargains for people who are not just ready to 50 as deep as the price of a new plano. Just think of an Emerson at $165; a splendid Steinway at one-half the regular price; also a fine little upright at $75; the above are all uprights, and numerous square planos at from $4 to 15 monthly. Beyer's, Seventeenth and Locust, Reason This Out.

And see if we are not right. Owing to delayed traffic of the railroads we have received too late for Christmas a carload of fine planes that we wish to dispose of; our warercoms are limited, and these goods crush our space; therefore, a reasonable reduction will be given the purchaser the next few days; terms to suit all purses. Beyer & Son, Seventeenth and Locust. OUR PIANO
